Dear Jim:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you and your staff once again for the professional, courteous, efficient and very timely work you did on our new building next door.

The quality of your work, your cooperation in meeting our restricted time schedule and your generosity in considering our budget were all deeply appreciated. Your firm's efforts have been consistently commendable and your personnel have been professional and responsible throughout the entire construction process.

I hope that this information will be a helpful reference for future projects that you may become involved with. If there is additional information that I can provide, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
